

Norfolk Southern: Dirty, Dangerous and in your Backyard

Learn What Your Community Can Do to Fight Proposed Monster Trains from Polluting the East End of Allegheny County

Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2018

7:00 p.m.

Mifflin Avenue United Methodist Church

905 Mifflin Ave, Regent Square

Pittsburgh 15221

Presenters:

Matthew Mehalik, Executive Director, Breathe Project

Glenn Olcerst, Artist, Attorney, and Central North Side Resident

Norfolk Southern Railroad is accelerating plans to raise bridges in our communities in order to run longer double-stacked trains along a 20-mile route through 24 communities which would impact the health of over 112,000 residents. The proposed changes are projected to increase pollution in these communities the equivalent of 6,800 buses per day. Norfolk Southern has tried to push this through without any hearing from the community.

Come to this educational meeting with the Breathe Project to learn more about what residents of the east end of Pittsburgh can do to fight to protect their health and their communities.

This event is free.

Learn more about what residents of the East End of Pittsburgh can do to protect their health and their communities!

East End Communities Impacted:

Braddock

North Braddock

Rankin

Swissvale

Edgewood

Wilkinsburg

Homewood South

Point Breeze North

Homewood West

Larimer

East Liberty

Shadyside

Bloomfield

North Oakland

In Addition:

Polish Hill

Strip District

Downtown

North Shore

East Allegheny

Central Northside

Allegheny West

Manchester

Marshall Shadeland

California Kirkbride

